W. C. Wilson, Princeton, Ky., is at the Arlington.

Geo. A. Rossington, of Chattanooga, is here to-day.

Thos. O. McCadden, of Bowling Green, is here to-day.

The telegraph office building is receiving a fresh coat of paint.

Jno. Dusty is predicting very cold weather about the 30th.

L. B. Askew returned from a business trip to St. Louis this morning.

T. M. Chardy and A. Hester, of Lafayette, are at the Franklin house.

Lo the poor Indian seems to be kicking up a tremendous racket in the northwest.

Jno. Macrae, of Clarksville, is visiting his brother, Frank Macrae, near the city, says the New Era.

L. A. Ragsdale left to-day for Meridian, Miss., and will be absent until about the first of January.

News comes to the LEAF-CHRONICLE that its correspondent, R. A. Harvey, at McAllister's X Roads, has a brand new baby boy at his house.

A negro snatched a pair of trousers from the front of Upton's store on Franklin street last evening and made off with them. He was overhauled, however, and turned over to the tender mercies of the grand jury.

If you need "Eye Glasses" or Spectacles, you can find the celebrated Hawks "crystallized lenses," they are the cheapest and best, at Owen & Moore's.

Al. Field's minstrels arrived in the city this morning and gave a good street parade about noon. They can be seen at the Opera House to-night. From the appearance of the troupe on the streets it is evident that they are as well equipped in no better than they were last season.

No Letters Last Night.

Through a mistake, perhaps by the mail agent, no letters were put off for Clarksville last night from the North and East. Such blunders as this should never happen, as it is very annoying to the business man as well as the young man who is expecting a letter from his best girl, or vice versa.

Tennis Hall Locked Up.

Tennie Hall, a woman of ill-fame, was locked up in the county jail last evening in default of bond. She was indicted at the last term of the criminal court for keeping a bawdy house, but gave security. Her bond-men heard yesterday that she was preparing to sell her property and leave town, consequently they turned her over to the officers.

Poetry Writing.

Tolbert Ingram and Jno. Welsh, telegraph messenger boys, have been busy, during spare moments for the past few weeks writing their Christmas messenger address. They have written and torn up until they now think they have it about right. Worse poetry than the boys have written for this occasion often finds its way into newspapers.

SENSATIONAL SUITS.

Court Circles Lively at Hopkinsville This Week.

The Hopkinsville New Era says that four damage suits of $10,000 each were filed in the circuit court clerk's office Friday. J. S. Summers, one of Christian county's wealthiest farmers, is made defendant to three of the petitions.

The first is Insaw West against J. S. Summers. The petition alleges that on the night of October 16, 1890, the defendant assaulted the plaintiff at her own house by maliciously and unlawfully shooting with intent to kill.

The second petition, is styled, W. A. West against J. S. Summers. The allegations are substantially the same and judgment asked in the sum of $10,000 and costs as in the preceding petition.

The third suit is W. A. West next friend for Frank West and Frank West against J. S. Summers. In this petition the "next friend" sets forth that the plaintiff, Frank West, is an infant without a guardian, and that the defendant did, on the night of October 14, 1890, assault him by shooting at him with intent to kill. Wherefore he prays judgment in the sum of $10,000 with costs and all proper relief.

On the same day India Hayes filed the papers for a breach of promise suit against E. W. Merritt. She claims that the defendant seduced her under promise of marriage and wants him to pay her $10,000.

The Tobacco Fair and Congress To-Morrow.

The Clarksville District Tobacco Congress will meet at the court-house to-morrow, and a large delegation is expected, representatives from various surrounding counties. Also the Union Warehouse tobacco fair will be held in the county court room, while the congress meets in the circuit court room. The managers are expecting about 100 samples of tobacco. This is the alliance show, but the tobacco fair will be open to the public.

The most important work of the Congress will be on the repeal of the tobacco tax and the passage of some resolution to bring more tobacco to the market this year than they did last. We hope the entire trade will co-operate with the farmers in this. There will be some nice samples of Burley tobacco here from Kentucky, and if three or four buyers will get orders for it these folks will make some inroads on Louisville and bring lots of this tobacco to Clarksville. Now is the time to build up the market for all classes.

Edison cheese just received at Adams & Neblett's.

The Market This Morning.

The market was very full again this morning. Some as fine cabbage heads as we have ever seen here from the North. It is a clear case that people can raise cabbage in this country if they will go at it right and take the same trouble as they do with tobacco to kill the worms.

There are also fine turnips and potatoes, both Irish and sweet. Irish potatoes and apples were about the only high priced articles in market. Excellent fat beef sells for only 3 to 4 cents. We noticed one man selling a hind quarter of stall fed beef at 3 cents, ducks, geese and turkeys plentiful. One man had a very large polecat skin, which he reckoned was worth 40 cents. It occurred to the writer that it was worth about $5 to do the skinning. He said the dogs killed it, and the dogs have not forgotten that cat yet.

The Building Boom and the Advance in Property.

The building boom goes steadily on and the city is constantly growing. When Mr. Daniel commenced a block of business houses on Third street, the wonder was what he would do with them, or who would undertake to do business so far out of line. Now they are all occupied with lively business.

The splendid buildings of Owen & Moore, Mr. Glenn and the Pythian Temple give impetus to those two blocks and about next summer Mr. Anglen will rear a fine building on his vacant lot, or some other fellow will, at a cost of $200 per foot for the lot.

Carpenters and builders are busy with contracts all over the city, building some handsome residences and many pretty cottages. The two large saw mills, besides other lumber dealers and builders all have their hands full and are handling large stocks of building material. The several brick yards are crowded to their utmost capacity.

If some of our easy-go-slow people would take a day to ride over the city and visit the outskirts and see what is going on, they would be greatly surprised, finding that Clarksville don't look like the same place it was one year ago. With all of this, property is steadily advancing. Some people thought town lots out-rageously high one year ago and could not conceive of any higher prices. Many thought the site of town lots in Greenwood extension on the 6th inst., very high at an average of $9 per foot, but yesterday the Wallace place sold for $19 to $23.25 per foot. Mr. Wallace was laughed at for paying $4,200 for the place, and yesterday it sold for $6,125.25.

The Hunters Return.

The South Christian Hunting Club returned from their annual hunt last night. They came from Old Napoleon, Ark., on the steamer Kate Adams, and there took a special car home, arriving here last night. The party is composed of the following gentlemen: Capt. Sam White, Dick Corder, Wm. West, Hamilton Hyde, W. A. Lowery, Peter Barker, Sam Steger, P. B. Pendleton, Austin Peay, W. D. Garrett, and P. P. Burke.

The party took breakfast at the Arlington this morning about four o'clock and left immediately thereafter, over the Princeton branch, for their homes. None of them were seen by the LEAF-CHRONICLE reporter, but the Memphis Appeal-Avalanche says they killed big game, and report fine sport with the gun and rod. They bagged fourteen deer and one bear. The weather was rather warm, but with this exception the hunt was in every respect pleasant and successful.

SOCIETY GOSSIP.

The German at the Arlington Hotel Last Night.

Local circles have been pretty lively this month and many pleasant events have been recorded duly in these columns. While there have been larger crowds on other occasions, the German at the Arlington last night was a signal success.

The attendance was composed of the cream of Clarksville society, and the short notice upon which it was gotten up reflects much credit upon Seymour Perkins and Harry Ware. The visiting young ladies in whose honor the German was given were: Misses Luckett, of Owensboro; Graves, of Lexington; Boyd, of Eddyville, and Miss Perkins, of Elkton. Among the ladies present were Mesdames Luckett, Stacker and Brown, Misses Boyd, Daniel, Dunlop, Settle, Williams, Perkins, Green, Luckett, O'Brien, Graves, Sanders, Willis and Mary Luckett. The gentlemen were: Messrs. Brown, Clark, Henry, Buckner, Faxon, Dunlop, Perkins, Alf. Luckett, of Owensboro; Cunningham, Coffman, and Ware. Morris Clark with Miss Sanders led alternately with Matt Dunlop with Miss Willis. The figures were new and beautiful. This event is probably the last before the Christmas festivities begin, when society is promised a lively time.

Loose Tobacco Market Opening.

J. W. Hayes, Jr., has returned from a trip through the country. He reports tobacco very light and chaffy and very little fine tobacco in the new crop. Some crops have been sold in the vicinity of Howell, Ky., at $4.50 to $6.00 round. This is a shade better than the prices paid last year for the same quality of tobacco. The prices offered in Robertson county, where the finest tobacco is grown, range from $5.00 to $6.00.
